SPORTS

WHAT NEXT

Dick O'Mara claims that his man Sullivan did not come through with the coin promised and he now wishes to make light the insides of Sullivan's shady dealings. It is no surprise to the public to hear such a squeal and we do not wish to express an opinion until we have heard more of the other side of the story.

People who know Billy Woods are slow to believe that he is crooked. Any one who mixes up in the fighting game can expect to get the worst of it. We trust that O'Mara is not a second Billy Nolan.

Here is O'Mara's signed statement: In behalf of the interests of sport in Honolulu, I hereby make the following statements:

The fight between Sullivan and Silva, Welch and Sullivan and Sullivan and Melvina were all fixed, either by an understanding with the referee or by the gloves being doped for Dick Sullivan to get the best of it.

Billy Woods, who refereed all three goes, was only agreed to by Sullivan on the understanding that he favor him whenever possible, particularly in rough work in the clinches.

The fight with Silva was fought under straight rules, hitting in clinches not barred. Woods lived up to his agreement in this fight, and when he saw Silva getting the best of it in fighting warned him if he did not go easier in the clinches that he would disqualify him.

The Welch fight was also under straight Queensberry Rules, and here again Woods agreed before the fight to give Sullivan the best of it.

Melvina and Sullivan fought "clean break," and though both men broke this rule on two occasions, the referee cautioned Melvina, but neglected to warn Sullivan.

In all but the Melvina fight, the gloves were tampered with.

There were two pairs, a regular 5-ounce pair and a small pair weighing about two ounces; they were distinguished by different colored ribbons. Sullivan and his friends were parties to this arrangement, and when the gloves were thrown into the ring, one of their representatives would nail them as quickly as possible and retain the smallized pair, which were regular 5-ounce gloves that had been opened, the padding taken out, and the leather sewn up again.

In the fight with Silva, the Portuguese was knocked out with gloves lighter than the regulations called for. In the Welch fight, Welch's manager, Eddie Finn, got hold of the gloves first, but fortunately for the Sullivan people, retained the heavier pair. There is no doubt that this had much to do with Spider Welch's defeat.

In the Melvina contest, brand new gloves were used, Sullivan holding Melvina so cheaply that he did not think it necessary to resort to doping the mitts.

I came down from San Francisco under agreement with Sullivan to train him. I was to receive 25 per cent of his winnings for my services. In the first fight with Melvina, I got $50, and in the second fight with the native I received $10 from Sullivan for two weeks' work. I got $20 after the Silva go, $20 after the Welch fight, and $19 after the Melvina contest.

I brought Sullivan down here as the local people did not know whether he could fight or not, and were unwilling to risk sending steamer passage. I have been sick off and on for the last three months, and though I have often asked Sullivan for financial assistance, he has refused me saying that his money was in the bank, and couldn't get it out.

When discussing the question of a referee, Sullivan has more than once said to me, "We don't want any one else but Woods. He will do what we tell him to; he's got the office to give us the best of it."

Now that the fighting game is over, I desire to let the public know on what a rotten scale the thing has been conducted.

DICK O'MARA. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 27th day of September, A. D. 1934. F. F. FERNANDES, Notary Public.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Roth, the local tennis crack, has been doing things on Maui. Krumpholtz was beaten by Roth in their first game 6-1, 6-2, and 6-3. The second game on H. A. Baldwin's court, resulted in a victory for Roth 6-1, 6-2, 5-7, 6-2. Roth is in a class by himself on Maui.

Jack McFadden calls on the Alameda for "Frisco." He will go after the best in the business. Sullivan goes later.

Two Diamond Head teams play ball tomorrow afternoon at the ball park. No admission.

The Y. M. C. A. soccer team will turn out to practice on Monday at Makiki.

Intercollegiate football has started at Oahu college and the Kama schools. Reed will act as coach at Oahu College and Hopwood for the Kama.

O'BRIEN AND BERGER MATCHED

Sam Berger and Philadelphia ace O'Brien will fight at Colma on Thanksgiving Day. The match has finally been arranged by Jimmy Coffroth, the terms calling for 65 2-3 per cent of the gate receipts to be divided between the fighters.

For some time Coffroth has been endeavoring to set the two heavyweights together and has submitted three distinct propositions to them. One of these, calling for an all fresco fight at Colma on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day and promising two-thirds of the purse to the gladiators, evidently looks good to Sam Berger, for he telegraphed to Coffroth last night, accepting it.

As Jack O'Brien has stated already that he would agree to any plan for a battle that Berger was satisfied with, the binding of the match seems a foregone conclusion and it seems certain that the two clever fighters will in November match their cleverness and punching strength in a more satisfactory fight than that pulled off in Philadelphia.

THE SQUARED CIRCLE

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Returning from the Coast this afternoon Battling Nelson and his manager went at once to the office of a local newspaper and issued a challenge to Joe Gans for another fight on the same terms as the Goldfield contest, save that the winner take all. Manager Nolan deposited a certified check for $10,000 as a side bet, which, in view of the fact that a purse of $20,000 has already been offered, will make the stake to the winner worth $30,000, as well as the championship title.

Lucky Baldwin did not make good his offer of $20,000 for a go between O'Brien and Burns.

A Philadelphia boxing promoter is considering the proposition of offering Gans and O'Brien a $10,000 purse for six rounds. This is a funny one, the lightweight champion meeting the heavyweight champion.

Lew Powell and Willie Wolf boxed at Colma on the 24th.

Mike Schreier wants to meet Sam Berger.

Frankie Nell has posted $2500 to meet Abe Attell. Nell is willing to have this coin go as a side bet.

McGovern and Attell may fight.

The moving pictures of the Gans-Nelson bout are better than those of the Britt-Nelson affair. They show the foul blow very plainly.

"Rough-house" McDonald defeated McLaughlin in the last round of their fight in San Francisco. It was a lucky punch. Siler refereed.

Montana Kid lost to Geo. Memsie at Los Angeles. The fight went ten rounds to a decision.

De Coursey defeated Johnnie Richie in twenty-five rounds at San Diego.

McGovern wants to fight Britt to a finish.

Harry Baker has first call on Abe Attell and says he should be given the chance over Neil.

Gans proposes that Nelson wear a third mitt on his head the next time they meet.

Nolan claims that he has received many offers from the coast to match Nelson with Britt or Gans.

O'Brien will not fight Berger straight rules. O'Brien says: "No hitting in the clinches."

The Colma club has hatched Neary and Cullen for October 1th.

SPORTING GOSSIP

Glasgow, Sept. 13.—John Ward, managing director of Denny Bros., builders of the last two Shamrocks, has sailed for New York. His understanding the Denny have submitted proposals to Sir Thomas Lipton for a construction of a Shamrock IV, they to be given a free hand in designing and building.

A trio of bowling champions are to tour the United States, Mexico and Canada.

Indianapolis, Sept. 11.—Millard Sanders, the well-known trainer and driver of Lou Dillon and other horses, was thrown from a sulky at the State Fair grounds yesterday and seriously hurt. Sanders was driving a horse in the show ring, and in making sharp turn the wheel of his sulky gave way.

No matter if Joe Doyle, Griffith's new mountaineer, never does anything worth while, the fact that he struck out Lajoie in his first game in last company will make his famous.

yesterday lowered his own and the world's record for 220 yards at Laughlin's lake, where the second day's program of the national swimming championships were decided. The New Yorker set the new mark at 2:42 2-5, breaking his own record by 1 3-5 seconds.

The University of Pennsylvania cricket team will make a tour of England.

New York, Sept. 14.—C. T. Henshall is going to England and France during the coming fortnight in quest of horses. It is said that he intends to invest about $50,000 in horses now in training and will bring them here for racing next season. Mr. Henshall is a firm believer in the superiority of the foreign-bred racers over the American product and he also entertains the idea that for $50,000 he can get horses the equal of which would cost $100,000 in this country.

Injuries have been so frequent this season that only fourteen players in the entire circuit have been able to participate in every game that has been played by their respective clubs. The Athletics and St. Louis have been the luckiest in freedom from injuries.

London, Sept. 15.—With the exception of O. D. Filley and D. A. Newell, all the members of the Harvard rowing crew, which was defeated by the Cambridge crew, sailed on the St. Louis today for New York. Friends of the oarsmen gathered at the Waterloo station to bid them farewell.

The California track team has commenced training.

ATHLETIC ARE CHAMPIONS

The manager of the Chinese Athletics desires to make the following statement in answer to the article which appeared in the morning paper of this date. "In the first place there has been no protest filed with the secretary of the Riverside League, secondly there exist no grounds for protest as it would have been impossible for our coach En Sue to know the signals of the Palamas in order to give them away and thirdly on account of the fact that I have in my possession an agreement signed by myself as manager of the Chinese Athletics, by Edward Marino, the president of the Palama Baseball Club, and C. J. Falk, the manager of the Winter League, agreeing to play the game in dispute at the ball grounds of the Honolulu Baseball League.

"There has been no protest made in the matter and there will be no second game played. If the Palamas are not satisfied we are willing to play another game but not for the cup offered for the Riverside League series. We will, however, play them for such a purse as they may wish if they are not afraid of a second beating.

E. S. KONG, Manager Chinese Athletics.
